BARRISTERS

Specialists in public and administrative law

Manchester Civil Justice Centre

Young Street Chambers is located in the heart of Spinningfields, Manchester's new business district

We have expertise in all aspects of judicial review and actions under the Human Rights Act 1998 and are able to draw upon Young Street's strengths in the related areas of criminal law, family law and human rights.

We provide advice and assistance in a range of specialist areas including:

- Community care
- Education
- Environmental law
- Health
- Housing
- Local government
- Mental health
- Licensing
- Prison law
- ASBOs and injunctions

Although we accept privately funded and publicly funded work, we also have a strong pro bono commitment. In addition, our barristers write and teach on a variety of public and administrative law topics and can provide training in chambers or in-house.

We are supported by a clerking team who understand the requirements of our clients, and by IT facilities that enable comprehensive research and a swift response.
