BARRISTERS

Specialists in clinical negligence

Young Street Chambers is located in the heart of Spinningfields, Manchester's new business district

We have leading practitioners undertaking work in the area of clinical negligence, providing advice and representation in a wide variety of claims involving all levels of injury from those that are modest to those of maximum severity.

We understand the importance of good communication when working as part of a team with both instructing solicitors and expert witnesses.

We accept instructions funded by Legal Aid, Conditional Fee Agreements and Before the Event Insurance.

Our barristers have experience of dealing with various different types of clinical negligence claims, which include:

- Cerebral palsy cases
- Cases involving brachial plexus injuries
- Orthopaedic cases
- Infection cases
- Cases relating to unnecessary treatment
- Ophthalmic cases
- Cosmetic surgery cases
- Cases arising out of a failure to properly diagnose
- Anaesthesia cases
- Cases relating to negligent prescribing
- Inquests

SEMINARS

Our barristers lecture on aspects of clinical negligence and personal injury litigation, in chambers and in-house. We provide and deliver commissioned lecture programmes, tailored to meet the needs and CPD requirements of solicitors.
